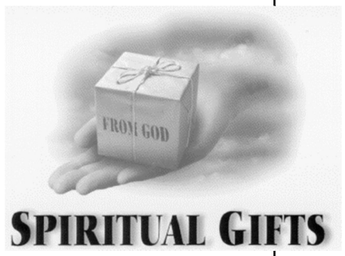
DEACON'S CORNER

God's gifts to us are not for us but for others!



I read an article about a certain broadcasting company that asked people to send in important sounding, obscure job titles. One person wrote in and said; "Underwater Ceramic Technician". She was a dishwasher at a local restaurant. Here are some others;

The director of first impressions; a receptionist.
An environmental maintenance officer; a garbage man.
A media publications administrator; a paper-boy or girl.

Sometimes titles are used to make a job sound more important.

St. Paul tells us in Ephesians 4:11 some of God's gifts to the church. He did not intend to for these titles to be understood as high sounding jobs. Instead, these gi fts were to be used to make the church function properly. No part was greater than another. The primary purpose of these gifts were to equip the living saints for the continuing work of Jesus' ministry.

It matters little what title we hold. What is important is that we strengthen the faith of God's people. We hold these titles out of our Love for the Lord and serve Him wherever we are needed. No matter what title we have, may we only be concerned that our lives may show others the grace of God!

Happy St. Patrick's Day from my family to yours,
Deacon Mike

SILENT AUCTION ITEMS ARE DUE BY APRIL 22nd (one month) If you have connections with businesses, the committee asks you to consider approaching management for donations. Donations letters are available at the office. Donations have been slow this year, and we ask your help in making the auction a success.
