

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

4th SUNDAY OF ADVENT

When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the infant leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth, filled with the Holy Spirit, cried out in a loud voice and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!" - Lk 1:41-42

First Reading: You, Bethlehem-Ephrathah too small to be among the clans of Judah, from you shall come forth for me one who is to be ruler in Israel. (Mt 5:1)

Psalm: Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved. (Ps 80)

Second Reading: "Then I said, 'As is written of me in the scroll, behold, I come to do your will, O God.'" (Heb 10:7)

Gospel: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. And how does this happen to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?" (Lk 1:42-43)

The Nativity of the Lord

First Reading: All the ends of the earth will behold the salvation of our God. (Is 52:10)

Psalm: All the ends of the earth have seen the saving power of God. (Ps 98)

Second Reading: In times past, God spoke in partial and various ways to our ancestors through the prophets; in these last days, he has spoken to us through the Son. (Heb 1:1-2)

Gospel: And the Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us, and we saw his glory, the glory as of the Father's only Son, full of grace and truth. (Jn 1:14)

THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. - Mt 2:10-11

First Reading: Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. (Is 60:1)

Psalm: Lord, every nation on earth will adore you. (Ps 72)

Second Reading: It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. (Eph 3:5-6)

Gospel: "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." (Mt 2:2)

ARCHDIOCESE OF INDIANAPOLIS

The Church in Central and Southern Indiana

The Christmas Season will soon be upon us - and we want to help you and your family get ready for BOTH Christmas and the Feast of the Holy Family!

This year there are back-to-back Mass obligations. With two obligations, that means TWO masses!

Not sure how to fulfill these obligations? Use this helpful chart!

Christmas Obligation Select one from	Friday, December 24
	4pm-SMM	6:30pm-SP	10:30pm-SP
Feast of the Holy Family Obligation Select one from	Saturday, December 25
		9am-SMM

Feast of the Holy Family Obligation Select one from	Saturday, December 25
		9am-SMM
Feast of the Holy Family Obligation Select one from	Sunday, December 26
	9am-SP		11am-SMM

REMEMBER: It's NOT possible to fulfill both obligations with only one Mass! Two Masses are needed!

Jesus wants to see you twice!

Please consult your parish bulletin or website for the specific mass times each day.

If there are any questions, please do not hesitate to contact your parish office.

Family Love

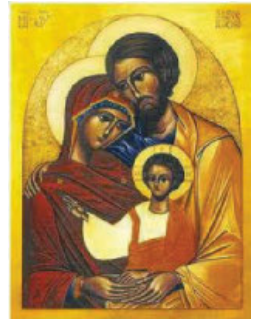

The feast of the Holy Family offers the opportunity to reflect on the mystery of family life. Every family and community share the perplexing, frustrating, demanding challenge Luke described. Put most simply, Mary and Joseph faced the difficult discovery that Jesus was not going along with them every step of the way. It is a real story of a family conflict and is symbolic of all kinds of relationships.

When we take the time to reflect on this feast, we can enjoy thinking about the most important relationships in our lives. Obviously, the theme of the day is family love. But the readings direct us to reflect specifically on how love nurtures each person's freedom to become who they are.

In today's Gospel, Luke tells us that Mary and Joseph were a day's journey out of Jerusalem when they discovered that Jesus was not with them. Luke describes their concern as they looked among the people they journeyed with but did not find him. But according to Luke, they did not return to search all over Jerusalem, checking out the markets and recreation spots that might have interested a young man. They went to the Temple and found their curious child listening to the scholars who spoke of the things of God.

They knew their son and had a good idea where they might find him. They understood him; they were his first teachers. As they taught him what every child needs to learn, they had seen his fascination with the things of God — which for him included everything.

The feast of the Holy Family invites us to celebrate our relationships with those we love most deeply. It reminds us that the greatest gift we can give others is to respect and nurture their freedom to become all God has created them to be. Whether it is with children, spouses, siblings or members of our communities, we know it will not be easy. But with Mary, we can pray, "Dear God! You never warned me!" and remember the only assurance she was ever given: "Nothing will be impossible for God."

December 26, 2021

We hope that you have taken some time to feel at peace, despite all the crazy preparations and gifts we felt we must buy. Many of those around us may be lonely or going through a "first" holiday season alone after the loss of a loved one. If you are aware of this situation, please reach out to those in need. It is what Jesus would want us to do; after all he gives us his love and warmth on a daily basis. A generous person will prosper whoever refreshes others will be refreshed- Proverbs 11:25. Please consider joining our Stephen Ministers or if you are in need of a Stephen Minister, please contact the parish office. We are here for you.

In case of Inclement
Weather

Just a reminder that if the school is closed due to inclement weather, the Adoration Chapel will also be closed. Thank you & God bless!

BIBLE STUDY TO START SOON!

St. Patrick Church is excited to offer a new Bible Study:

JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE.

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for this 10-week video study that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins and Edward Sri will be the presenters.

The Sunday morning study will begin on January 23rd; the Wednesday evening study will begin on January 26th. For more information or to register, contact Geri March at 812-240-7456 or victorian1411@gmail.com.

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike
