INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment.

God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

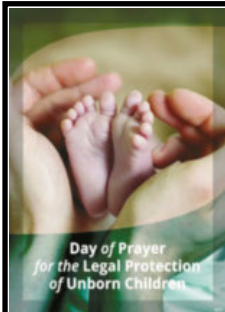

Next weekend there will be a second collection for the Church in Latin America.

Church in Latin America: Supports pastoral programs as awarded by the Subcommittee on the Church in Latin America throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Projects include the work of evangelization formation of laity, religious and seminarians, as well as youth ministry and catechesis.

*Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
Hebrews 11:1*

In this ever changing world of fear, hope and also uncertainty, it is good to rehearse the blessings that God has done for you. Many times we only focus on what ails us and we forget to look at the many blessings we have received. Let us all ask God to give us the grace to use our faith to do God's work. Remember we are here for you if you need compassionate, Christian care-giving.

Still Time to sign up for the new Bible Study JESUS: THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE.

Jesus is our savior, our redeemer, our Lord and our God. Our belief in Jesus is what makes us who we are as Catholics, as Christians, but do we really know him as we should? Is Jesus a part of your life, or is he at the center of your life as he should be? We invite you to make him the center of your life by joining us for this 10-week video study that explores the entirety of Jesus' life and what he means for us as Catholics today. Marcellino D'Ambrosio, Jeff Cavins and Edward Sri will be the presenters.

The Sunday morning study will begin on January 23rd; the Wednesday evening study will begin on January 26th. For more information or to register, contact Geri March at 812-240-7456 or victorian1411@gmail.com.

Family Love

The feast of the Holy Family offers the opportunity to reflect on the mystery of family life. Every family and community share the perplexing, frustrating, demanding challenge Luke described. Put most simply, Mary and Joseph faced the difficult discovery that Jesus was not going along with them every step of the way. It is a real story of a family conflict and is symbolic of all kinds of relationships.

When we take the time to reflect on this feast, we can enjoy thinking about the most important relationships in our lives. Obviously, the theme of the day is family love. But the readings direct us to reflect specifically on how love nurtures each person's freedom to become who they are.

In today's Gospel, Luke tells us that Mary and Joseph were a day's journey out of Jerusalem when they discovered that Jesus was not with them. Luke describes their concern as they looked among the people they journeyed with but did not find him. But according to Luke, they did not return to search all over Jerusalem, checking out the markets and recreation spots that might have interested a young man. They went to the Temple and found their curious child listening to the scholars who spoke of the things of God.

They knew their son and had a good idea where they might find him. They understood him; they were his first teachers. As they taught him what every child needs to learn, they had seen his fascination with the things of God — which for him included everything.

The feast of the Holy Family invites us to celebrate our relationships with those we love most deeply. It reminds us that the greatest gift we can give others is to respect and nurture their freedom to become all God has created them to be. Whether it is with children, spouses, siblings or members of our communities, we know it will not be easy. But with Mary, we can pray, "Dear God! You never warned me!" and remember the only assurance she was ever given: "Nothing will be impossible for God."

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

During the month of January, we will continue to collect metal coffee cans and candles (new or used) to help those in the community who are sheltering in tents and unheated structures. Just one candle can raise the temperature in a tent 15-25 degrees from the outside air.

We thank those who have already donated, the appreciation was great and they were so very happy to know that with the cold weather comes prayers and warmth.

There are boxes for the candles at each church entrance, or you can drop them off at the office during normal business hours.
