Guide Me

St. Nicholas Church in Galway, Ireland has both a long history and an active present. Some of you may have visited this church. It's the oldest church in Ireland and it provides guidance in a practical way. The church towers over the town and its steeple is used by ships captains as a guide for navigating their way safely in Galway Bay. For centuries, this church has reliably pointed the way home for sailors.

We can certainly identify with the need for guidance. In fact, Jesus addressed this very need during the Last Supper. He said that after He was gone the Holy Spirit would play a crucial role in their lives. The Holy Spirit, says Jesus, will guide you into all truth.

In a world of confusion and fear, guidance is often needed. We can easily be misdirected by the culture around us or by the brokenness within us. Thankfully the Holy Spirit is here to help us, direct and guide us. May we always turn to the Lord in our time of need, a reliable guide in all of life's seas!

Together through prayer and service,
Deacon Mike

BRING CANS OF SOUP TO MASS IN FEBRUARY!

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The human heart will always find itself wanting unless it finds its rest in God. Many people haven't yet figured out that pursuing purely secular ideologies and interests and side stepping their relationship with God causes them to fall short of their potential. When we seek our satisfaction, seek our strength, and establish priorities based entirely on the things of this world, we come up empty. There is never enough and we are always reaching for more. We develop distorted senses of justice, lose our moral axis, and lower our benchmarks for change, growth, and development. That is why knowing the beatitudes and God's vision they contain is so important. They remind us that our consumption, success driven lives can actually hurt and exploit others; quickly moving us away from God's idea of how things need to look. God ultimately will set things straight. We can assist in that mission now by trusting, hoping, and looking to God for our cues for how to live, set goals for ourselves and discern the best way to share this world with our brothers and sisters.
