This week's special collection will be even more vital in providing shelter, food, transport and comfort to Ukrainian refugee's as well as other families in over 100 countries.

For a family to be unable to provide in times of emergency and crisis can be devastating, not just to the adults, but also the children. The Catholic Relief Services puts feet on the ground where they are needed to provide humanitarian support.

Endure life's Wrongs

When tragedy, disappointment, and heartache surface in our lives, it is not unusual for many of us to become self-condemning and resentful. Sometimes we spend so much time trying to determine what we did wrong in the past to deserve the unpleasant happenings of the moment that we fail to resolve the challenges of the present. A quote I read, "If we lock ourselves in a prison of failure and self-pity, we are the only jailers ... we have the only key to our freedom." We can let ourselves out of such a prison by turning to the Lord for strength. With His help we can use our trials as stepping-stones. The keys are in our hands. Sometimes as children we were told everything would be all right. But life is not like that. No matter who you are, you will have problems. Tragedy and frustration are the unexpected intruders on life's plans. Someone has said, "Life is what happens to you while you are making other plans." It is important that we not look upon our afflictions as a punishment from God. True, our own actions may cause some of our problems, but often there is no evident misconduct that has caused our trials. Just the normal journey through life teaches us that nothing worthwhile comes easy. When we've been offended, it's good to choose a gracious response which will help us to avoid regret later and most important it will please God. When we desire to please God in these situations, He is able to make even our enemies to make peace with us!

Angels for Babies is now accepting blankets for babies and also lap blankets for Veterans. Due to Covid, many facilities were not accepting hand crafted items such as crocheted hats and blankets for newborns. At this time, we are once again accepting items crafted by our parishioners.

The items are given to local hospitals. Often the small hats and blankets are used for preemies. The lap blankets are also distributed to various facilities for our veterans.

There will be a box in the church for donated items beginning March 21st through April 21st. After this date the blankets can be turned in to the parish office anytime during office hours. If you need further information, please contact Jeri Greve at 812-229-0560 or Kay McGill at 812-201-3641.
