

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

I gave my back to those who beat me, my cheeks to those who plucked my beard; my face I did not shield from buffets and spitting.
(Is 50:6)

Psalm:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading:

He humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Because of this, God greatly exalted him. (Phil 2:8-9)

Gospel:

Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this he breathed his last.
(Lk 23:46)

Palm Sunday

When you hear "Lent," or "Stations of the Cross," what comes to mind? Is this just an annual season before the Easter festivities, or a must-follow ritual the Church demands of you? Or, is this a period you can truly focus and reflect on the mystery of God's love for mankind – and the mystery of one man's sacrifice and passion for all (including those He was yet to meet, like you and I)?

Some years ago, during a discussion among friends, one person asked, "what's the point of going through Lent and the Stations of the Cross all over again when Jesus did that already?" and the response was, "if we put ourselves through the Stations of the Cross meaningfully, we are able (even just for a few days) to put our feet in Christ's sandals so that we would also learn to love (even to death) all mankind; regardless of how often we are hurt in the process."

The Passion of Christ demonstrates how much we are loved and how far God will go to show love to us. Sometimes, I think Jesus may have wanted to change His mind while praying in Gethsemane, where he sought God in the midst of sorrow and distress. Sometimes, we also feel sorrow, anguish, and distress. If given the power, we would 'run out' of our lives. How often have we come to that point of not wanting to go any further? How often have we thought, "I'm not sure I can do this"? I know I have.

Jesus turned to God for comfort and reassurance. Who do you turn to during the tough times? May we all turn to God for comfort and reassurance!

Together we walk the passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, Deacon Mike

The parish offices of St. Patrick and St. Margaret Mary Church will be closed on April 15th, Good Friday, and Easter Monday April 18th. We will reopen for normal business hours on Tuesday, April 19th.

Angels for Babies is now accepting blankets for babies and also lap blankets for Veterans. Due to Covid, many facilities were not accepting hand crafted items such as crocheted hats and blankets for newborns. At this time, we are once again accepting items crafted by our parishioners.

The items are given to local hospitals. Often the small hats and blankets are used for preemies. The lap blankets are also distributed to various facilities for our veterans.

There will be a box in the church for donated items beginning March 21st through April 21st. After this date the blankets can be turned in to the parish office anytime during office hours. If you need further information, please contact Jeri Greve at 812-229-0560 or Kay McGill at 812-201-3641.

Spring Cleaning & Our Common Home

Starting to think about spring cleaning? Look over your cleaning supplies and consider making your own environmentally friendly cleaners. This will save money, reduce waste and decrease exposure to harmful chemicals. The internet is a good reference for cleaning recipes! Want to join the Creation Care Team? The St. Patrick Middle School students will be doing their annual re-enactment of The Passion/Living Way Of The Cross.

This will be held in the St. Patrick Church on Good Friday, at 6:30pm, April 15th.

We would like to invite all members of the Terre Haute Deanery to this special presentation.

How we think directly affects how we live. When we are spiraling in noise or distract- edness, we have a choice to shift our minds back to God through stillness. When we are spiraling in isolation, we have a choice to shift our minds back to God through community. When we are spiraling in complacency, we have a choice to shift our minds back to God through serving him and others. If you have trusted in Jesus as your Savior, you have a God-given, God-empowered, God-redeemed ability to choose what you think about and how you act. Praise be to our God through trust in his good and sovereign purposes.

Altar Society of St Patrick will meet Tuesday, April 12th 2022 at 1pm, upstairs in the Fr. Joe Kerns Deanery Center.

All women and men of the parish are welcome.

For more information please call
Liz Bryant at 812-243-3756.
