

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.
(Acts 10:40-41)

Psalm:

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad. (Ps 118)

Second Reading:

Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
(Col 3:2-3)

Gospel:

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead. (Jn 20:9)

Happy Easter!

In most of North America, Easter is a national holiday. We celebrate it by going to church, followed by a special family meal, Easter egg hunts, and giving gifts of colored eggs and chocolate. In Russia and other parts of Eastern Europe, people create very intricate designs on their Easter eggs. Lamb or large hams are common for the Easter meal. In England, it is customary to eat hot cross buns and roll colored eggs down a large hill. In most Christian countries, the church bells ring out loud and merry on Easter Sunday morning to mark this joyous event!

What do Eggs and Rabbits Symbolize during Easter? A lot of the symbols of Easter represent new life and new beginnings. We use eggs because they represent a brand new life inside the shell. Since ancient times, rabbits have been used as a symbol of rebirth. Easter also coincides with spring. These symbols are also linked with the season and help us to welcome new life after the darkness of winter.

Why Do We Celebrate Easter? We celebrate Easter to remember the great sacrifice that Jesus made for us in order to save us from the sins we commit so we can go to heaven. More importantly Easter Sunday helps us to remember when Jesus Christ was crucified, His body was kept in a tomb. During this time, many people were sad and grieved His death.

After three days, when Jesus' friends and family arrived, they found that His body was missing! Jesus had risen again and although He could not stay on Earth as He did before, He did stop to say goodbye to a few people. This let them know that He was safe and happy again, and still in our lives. Although he is not physically among us, He is still present in our hearts. May the joy of Easter be with us all year long!

Happy Easter from my family to yours,
Deacon Mike

If a Mass is canceled, any Mass Intention that is scheduled for that day will be covered by Fr. Ben. It will not need to be rescheduled. Any questions please call Jeanne for St. Pat's 812-232-8518 or Missy for SMM 812-232-3512

Angels for Babies is now accepting blankets for babies and also lap blankets for Veterans. Due to Covid, many facilities were not accepting hand crafted items such as crocheted hats and blankets for newborns. At this time, we are once again accepting items crafted by our parishioners.

The items are given to local hospitals. Often the small hats and blankets are used for preemies. The lap blankets are also distributed to various facilities for our veterans.

There will be a box in the church for donated items beginning March 21st through April 21st. After this date the blankets can be turned in to the parish office anytime during office hours. If you need further information, please contact Jeri Greve at 812-229-0560 or Kay McGill at 812-201-3641.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Alleluia, Christ is risen! What a glorious and holy day. The resurrection of Christ speaks of freedom, new life, restored faith and enduring, unconditional love. The huge stone, separating death and life, has been moved, allowing God's radiant power to usher in eternal life. When we see the truth of Christ's resurrection through eyes of love, we see the fullness of timeless beauty, truth, and wonder revealed. The emptiness of the tomb is filled with the eternity of love. We have many stones and boulders blocking the path to freedom, love, and joy. They are often too big for us to move, and they cripple us. We can take a leap of faith today and believe with all our heart, mind, and soul that there is much more than can be seen by the naked eye. There is something very holy, sacred, and eternal stirring within us. We want to live forever! Christ's resurrection brings us joy and allows us to see ourselves as we are meant to be seen, as God's children destined for glory!

SHARING GOD'S LOVE For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. –John 3:16

As we enter Holy Week, we remember how our Lord suffered and died so that each and every one of us might be saved from sin and have eternal life. Reflect on God's infinite love for you. How have you responded to that love this Lent, and how can you share it with others? Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more. Rice Bowls should be turned in by Easter Sunday.

Since we have all been trying to process all the months of isolation and chain of events, we would like to share a passage taken from the Jesus Calling book. " You are mine for all time; nothing can separate you from my Love. Since I have invested my very life in you, be well assured that I will also take care of you. Many problems vanish instantly in the Light of My Love because you realize you are never alone. Other problems may remain, but they become secondary to knowing Me and rejoicing in the relationship I so freely offer you. Each moment you can choose to practice My Presence or to practice the presence of problems. " ROMANS 8:38-39; EXODUS 33:14

MEDITACIÓN EVANGÉLICO - (Gospel Meditation) 17 de abril de 2022 Domingo de Pascua

"Dios nuestro, que por medio de tu Hijo venciste a la muerte y nos has abierto las puertas de la vida eterna, concede, a quienes celebramos hoy la Pascua de Resurrección, resucitar también a una nueva vida. Renovados por la gracia del Espíritu Santo. Por nuestro Señor Jesucristo..." (Oración Colecta). El Mensaje de la Pascua resuena y se repite en cada una de las lecturas de la Eucaristía del día hoy. Hoy celebramos con gozo el día más grande del Calendario Litúrgico. Hoy cantamos alegres el Gloria y el Aleluya, porque Cristo, muerto y sepultado el Viernes Santo, ha Resucitado.

Pongamos mucha atención en la secuencia que se proclama en este día y busquemos como María Magdalena al Señor: "¿Qué has visto en la mañana, María, en la mañana?" "A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada, los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortajas. ¡Resucitó de veras mi amor y mi esperanza!". Corramos presurosos a buscarlo resucitado en la familia, en la escuela, en el trabajo, en los inmigrantes, en los enfermos, y lo más importante, en nuestro propio corazón. El Ángel también anima a las mujeres al llegar a la tumba: "Ustedes no tienen por qué temer. Yo sé que buscan a Jesús, que fue crucificado. No está aquí, pues ha resucitado, tal como lo había anunciado" (Mateo 28:5-6). "Esta es la culminación del Evangelio, es la Buena Noticia por excelencia: Jesús, el crucificado ha resucitado. Este acontecimiento es la base de nuestra fe y de nuestra esperanza. Jesús, el Amor encarnado, murió en la cruz por nuestros pecados, pero Dios lo resucitó y lo ha constituido Señor de la vida y de la muerte" (Papa Francisco). ¡Aleluya, Aleluya, Aleluya!
