My Connection with God

1. Build a Daily Practice of Prayer (even if it means praying in the bathroom)

Prayer is simply a conversation with Jesus. A simple chat with Jesus can happen any time and any place. Through these frequent exchanges we build a firm foundation of faith and strengthen our relationship with Christ.

Pray when you first wake up or just before you fall asleep. Pray in your car-as your drive to work or running errands pray for your neighbors, the people in your community, and even the dead as you pass a cemetery. Pray during chores, nothing makes folding laundry, washing dishes, or vacuuming more appealing than praying for the people who dirtied them in the first place.

2. Develop a Daily Practice of Reading the Scriptures

What a gift the Bible is! The inspired Word of God is available for us to read, ponder, and learn. It is kind of mind-blowing! How often have you wished Jesus would just appear and speak comfort or wisdom into our current situation? The more time we spend listening to him through the Scriptures, the more apt we will become in hearing his voice speak directly to our heart.

3. Continue Your Faith Education with Spiritual Reading

Despite what many believe, Confirmation was not our "graduation" from religious education but instead is our invitation to seek a higher education in the Catholic faith.

Spiritual reading can be incorporated into personal prayer time with just a few pages of a Catholic classic a day, a good Catholic fiction book or integrated into leisure reading with a good saint biography. We are blessed to live in a time when the choices for spiritual reading are almost as inexhaustible as the God we seek to know through these works.

4. Meet Regularly with Others on the Same Journey

The Apostles were sent two by two to bring the Gospel far and wide. Jesus knew they would need each other as companions and support on their journeys of faith. We too need others alongside us on our faith journeys. There are great benefits to being connected with friends who can lift us up when we are feeling weak or discouraged in our faith, or being able to offer that support likewise to our friends.

Consider joining a prayer group, book club or a bible study. It is a joy to be surrounded at times by people who share in the joy of living a life seeking a deeper relationship with Christ.

Stay connected on our journey of faith

GOSPEL MEDITATION

June 5, 2022 Pentecost Sunday

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St. Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.
