

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

"When there were no depths I was brought forth,
when there were no fountains of springs of water;
before the mountains were settled into place,
before the hills, I was brought forth;
while as yet the earth and fields were not made,
nor the first clods of the world." (Prv 8:24-26)

Psalm:

O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth! (Ps 8)

Second Reading:

The love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. (Rom 5:5)

Gospel:

"Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." (Jn 16:15)

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth. He will not speak on his own, but he will speak what he hears, and will declare to you the things that are coming. He will glorify me, because he will take from what is mine and declare it to you." - Jn 16:13-14

Concepts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCC.

Friend of God

Just recently I heard about a billboard along a highway that said, "God is an imaginary friend; choose reality. It will be better for all of us."

Obviously, the bold statement compares Christians to children whose imaginations invent a make believe companion. But is that what God is to us, an imaginary friend?

Actually, the evidence favors His reality, right! Ponder these ideas; the creation of the world shows there is a Grand Designer behind the universe. Our conscience indicates a Lawgiver behind each human's sense of right and wrong. The creativity we express in music and art reflect the same images that our creator possesses. Jesus Christ reveals what God is like in human form. Also our communion with Christians everywhere through the Holy Spirit reminds us of the reality of God.

In the Old Testament, Abraham believed in God and he was called a friend of God. There are people who deny the reality of God. That is sad, because when real life get you down, who do you turn too? The dearest friend on earth is but a mere shadow compared to Jesus. What a friend we have in Jesus!

"Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed" (John 20: 29).

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Dear Parishioners,

As you may know I will be stepping down as co-youth minister at the end of the month to pursue an advanced degree in Theology. I wanted to take a few minutes to say what a joy it has been getting to know you. I am grateful for the opportunities that I have has working with our high school kids and their families. I can't begin to express how grateful I am for the support we received from our Catholic community here in Terre Haute. Please pray for me as I start this new chapter to Pennsylvania. In a few short weeks and know that you are in my prayers!

God Bless,
Eric Starrs
