Encountering Jesus means taking risks

One big thing we can all learn is that God is a risk taker. We are going to have to trust the Lord, and that means being willing to take a risk and move out of our comfort zones. There's always a temptation to play it safe and just maintain what we have. But to succeed in life, you have to risk possible failure.

In the gospel of Luke, there's a great example of the risk involved in trusting God.

One day, Jesus went into a boat with his disciples to the other side of the lake. But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the waves: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

Jesus and His disciples were having great success, preaching and ministering in the cities and villages of Galilee. So when Jesus said, "Let's go to the other side," His disciples might have thought 'Don't rock the boat, Jesus. We've got it made. Why do you want to go to another place?' But they trusted Jesus, and were willing to take the risk.

Everything worthwhile in life is a risk. To laugh is to risk appearing a fool. To cry is to risk appearing sentimental. To reach out for another is to risk involvement. To expose feelings is to risk rejection. To place your dreams before a crowd is to risk ridicule. To love is to risk not being loved in return. To go forward in the face of overwhelming odds is to risk failure.

The greatest hazard in life is to risk nothing at all. A person who risks nothing does nothing and has nothing of real value.

Is God asleep? When you take a risk with God, it may sometimes seem that He has fallen asleep, and you're alone facing the storm and about to sink. With Jesus in your boat or life, you will not sink! Taking a risk with Jesus doesn't guarantee smooth sailing, but it does guarantee you'll see and experience wonderful miracles.

To encounter means to run into or collide with the unexpected. So, a grace encounter is when we feel the furthest from God and when we least expect to experience God's grace, then unexpectedly run into or collide with the unearned, undeserved grace and goodness of God!

Is your life miserable because of someone else's behavior? Do you feel like you are the only one holding your family together?" and more! ### INSPIRACIÓN DE LA SEMANA (Live the Liturgy)

Dios nos llama en medio de las cosas ordinarias. A menudo, solo buscando a Dios en lo dramático, espectacular, el ritual o los lugares sagrados, nos perdemos que Él está caminando a nuestro lado. En cada momento de cada día, en cada circunstancia y experiencia, Dios nos está llamando: "Sígueme". A veces, estamos demasiado distraídos para escuchar esta llamada. Otras veces, preferimos ignorarlo o fingir que no se escuchó. Dios, sin embargo, es muy persistente. Ya sea que sintonicemos nuestra audición para recibir esta invitación ahora o cuando cerremos los ojos en la muerte, debemos tomar una decisión. La elección implica dejar algunas cosas atrás y seguir adelante, asumiendo riesgos. Al elegir mantenernos enfocados y decididos, el lente que usamos para ver nuestro mundo y los demás es de Dios, no el nuestro. La vida ya no se trata de lo que es importante o me importa a mí, sino de lo que le importa a Dios. Adquirimos un nuevo filtro y se nos pide que lo usemos para tomar decisiones, establecer prioridades y determinar qué dirección tomaremos y cómo amar. Una vez que aceptamos la invitación de Dios, no podemos seguir mirando hacia atrás a lo que se quedó, solo hacia las sorpresas que están por venir.
