

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

First Reading:

As long as Moses kept his hands raised
up,
Israel had the better of the fight.
(Ex 17:11)

Psalm:

Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth. (Ps 121)

Second Reading:

So that one who belongs to God may be competent,
equipped for every good work.
(2 Tm 3:17)

Gospel:

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones
who call out to him day and night?" (Lk 18:7)

29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Will not God then secure the rights of his chosen ones who call out to him day and night? Will he be slow to answer them? I tell you, he will see to it that justice is done for them speedily. But when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on earth?" - Lk 18:7-8

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1979 CCB

We Celebrate World Mission Sunday Together Next Weekend!

Next weekend, we join Catholics around the world for the celebration of World Mission Sunday. We are called to offer our prayers and financial help for the Church's missionary work in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands and parts of Latin America and Europe. Please be generous in next weekend's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith for the Missions. Thank you!

Let Go of the Past

What is it that dominates your attention? What is it that you are most aware of day after day? One very common tendency and temptation most people struggle with is to become fixated upon sufferings, humiliations, mistakes and the false opinions of others. When we experience one or more of these burdens, we can be tempted to make them the central focus of our life.

For example, if you are unjustly humiliated and others have a negative opinion of you, it can be exceptionally hard to keep this from dominating your thoughts. Similarly, whatever it is that causes you grief or suffering can easily become the focal point of your life.

These tendencies must be overcome by a commitment to look beyond these obstacles and to gaze only on the Truth. What is the Truth? It's that which is in the Mind of God. Look at it from God's point of view. Will it matter tomorrow, a day or week and so on from now?

St. Paul's conversion was greeted with skepticism and fear. When he began preaching that Jesus is the Son of God, people said, "Isn't he the one who destroyed those who spoke of Jesus and has he come to do the same?" Paul even tried to join the disciples and they were even afraid of him. However, Paul never ignored his past, but spoke of the mercy of God.

Like Paul, we don't need to parade our failures or to pretend bad things or bad decisions didn't happen to you. Instead, we can thank the Lord that through His grace, our past is forgiven, our present is changed, and our future is bright with hope for all He has prepared for us.

Deacon Mike

All Souls Day Table of Remembrance

This year, St. Patrick Church is going to be putting up a table on the St. Joseph side of the altar rail. We would like to invite parishioners to bring in a framed picture no bigger than 5 X 7 to put onto the display. The table will stay up until the beginning of Advent which is November 27th.

A table will be set up on October 22/23 and October 29/30 in the crossway of the church with pens and note paper so that you may put your deceased loved ones name, and if you would like, the dates of their life span. These will be typed in the office for the display.

You may bring your framed pictures in to the church at Mass, or bring to the parish office during normal business hours (9am-Noon/1pm-4pm).

This will be a touching time of remembrance for those who have gone before us. Please remember to light a candle and pray for their souls.

Christ in Me, With Me, Through Me

Thank you to all parishioners who have completed and submitted your "Christ in Me, With Me, Through Me" card to the church. For those parishioners who have not yet had the opportunity to submit their card, a letter will be mailed to you with a personalized Commitment Card. Each and every one of you is a vital member of our parish community and we want to hear from you! This is an opportunity to reflect upon and renew your sacrificial commitment to support the mission of St. Patrick Church. For those who are able – there is an opportunity to make a one-time gift to the parish.

For those of you who would prefer to fill out your "Christ in Me, With Me, Through Me" card online, please visit the parish website at www.saintpat.org.

If you have any questions regarding the "Christ in Me, With Me, Through Me" Program, please feel free to contact the parish office. (812)232-8518

Week 3: Fruit cups & Canned Vegetables

Week 4: Rice/Noodles/Pasta

If you have ever thought about serving as a Stephen Minister, we would love to hear from you. This person is one of compassion and is able to offer encouragement to and intercedes for those he or she cares about. Many Stephen Ministers say that they receive much more from the caring relationship with their care receiver than they give.
