Turn from Judgment to Reflection

Are you willing to look within yourself and examine your motives and feelings? Jesus asked those who gathered to stone the woman caught in adultery, to think about their own sins and if they found they were without sin to cast the first stone. After reflection they all turned away and Jesus was left with alone with the woman. He told her to go and leave her life of sin. (John 8:7-11)

Jesus turned their judgmental hearts by having them examine their own hearts and look at their own sin. While standing in judgment over the woman, they realized they were guilty too and needed to turn away from judgment.

How about you? I know I am sometimes too quick to judge others and should have given them the benefit of the doubt, sought to find out why they acted as they did or faced them with forgiveness in my heart. If I understand Jesus' example, He wants me to look at my own sinfulness and pay attention to setting my own things right with Him.

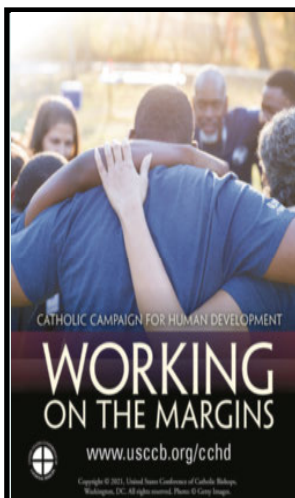

He wants me reflective, repentant, open and humble not judgmental, close minded, arrogant or self-righteous. Here is a verse to meditate on today as you think reflectively. Psalm 19:14 "May the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be pleasing in your sight, O LORD, my Rock and my Redeemer."

And if you need a little help, here is a prayer to say;

Lord, help me to see others through your eyes and not through my own judgment. Holy Spirit, give me a reflective spirit that is willing to listen to your guidance and uncover sin within my life. Give me strength to speak and act in a way that is pleasing to you and uplifting to those around me. Amen.

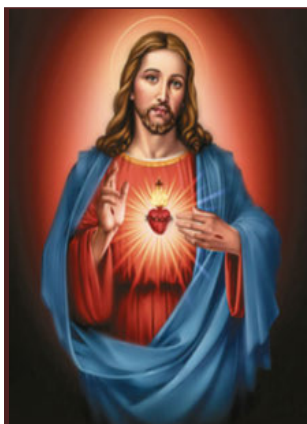

Deacon Mike

This week our special collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. More than 37 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection supports programs that empower people to identify and address the obstacles they face in bringing permanent and positive change to their communities.

Please give generously!

"All in the Heart of Jesus" Program

Thank you for your generous support of our "All In The Heart Of Jesus" Program! A Stephen Minister typically meets with his or her care receiver once a week for about an hour. Caring relationships last as long as the need is there—perhaps only a month or two, in the instance of someone recovering from surgery, or possibly a year or more, in the instance of someone grieving the loss of a loved one.

Our Stephen Ministers are here for you, just a phone call away. Please contact the office to be connected to the ministry for your special needs. 812-232-8518 You are not alone.

Together in Faith

Youth Faith Formation & Ministry:

• You can still register for the Youth Faith Formation/Religious Education programs grades K-8, on the shared Parish websites. Sessions are Wednesday evenings at 6:30-7:30pm at St. Margaret Mary Church/Dede Center. The children have spoken and they miss the ice breaker games. So, doors will be open for the youth at 6:00pm for games and prayers. It is optional.

Are you being called? Our Youth Faith Formation is thriving. We would greatly appreciate your support by sharing your time, talents and prayers. Please consider helping as a Catechist.

• The High School Youth Ministry groups will attend IGNITE Catholic Teen Rally on 11/20. The next Teen Connection sessions will be 12/4 & 12/18. We will meet at the St. Margaret Mary Campus from 12:30-2:30pm.

• All High School students are invited to the Teen Connection Youth Ministry program. Faith Formation doesn't stop after Confirmation and this is a fantastic way for teens to strengthen their relationship with Christ with like minded teens in their community. #staycatholic
