Pause to be Grateful

As America celebrates Thanksgiving this week, most will pause to be grateful for various things in life. For many of us, this is one of our favorite holidays. What a joy to slow down as a nation long enough to consider all the things for which we can be grateful!

For Christians, Thanksgiving goes much further than mere gratitude over the blessings of life, family, Indians, Pilgrims, and our nation. When we consider all of our blessings this week, the celebration goes past the day off of work, family dinners, parades, and football. Instead, our gratitude goes beyond that, by praising God, who provides blessings in both this life and the promises of the one to come.

Essentially, God deserves praise for everything. He sustains the world and provides for us. From the weather, to God's provisions for our health, God is active in every part of our day. His fingerprints of grace are on each area of our lives.

As we reflect on God's gift's for life and His kindness toward us, our attention focuses on Jesus, the cross, salvation, and eternity. There is no greater reflection of the power and provision of God toward mankind than the person of Jesus. When man had no hope of eternal life, God sent Jesus to provide eternal life through His sacrificial death.

As you prepare for your Thanksgiving celebration, for what are you grateful? How have you seen God's grace and mercy in your life? May we always pause and be grateful!

Happy Thanksgiving from my family to yours!
Deacon Mike

To all friends of St. Patrick and St. Margaret Mary Churches:

Here we go again! We're gearing up for our annual Ruthmarie Bauer-Newport Thanksgiving dinner.

This year there will be no dine-in service, but delivery and pick-up will still be offered. We will need cooked turkeys, desserts and delivery drivers.

Last year over a thousand meals were delivered, we expect more this year. Please reserve an hour to help deliver, this is a wonderful way for children and grandchildren to learn about service to those in need.

We have had some frozen turkeys donated by very giving people of the community, we need a few people to offer to thaw and bake the birds for the dinner! Call the office if you can help bake a turkey 812-232-8518.

Together in Faith

Youth Faith Formation & Ministry:

• You can still register for the Youth Faith Formation/Religious Education programs grades K-8, on the shared Parish websites. Sessions are Wednesday evenings at 6:30-7:30pm at St. Margaret Mary Church/Dede Center. The children have spoken and they miss the ice breaker games. So, doors will be open for the youth at 6:00pm for games and prayers. It is optional.

Are you being called? Our Youth Faith Formation is thriving. We would greatly appreciate your support by sharing your time, talents and prayers. Please consider helping as a Catechist.

• All High School students are invited to the Teen Connection Youth Ministry program. Faith Formation doesn't stop after Confirmation and this is a fantastic way for teens to strengthen their relationship with Christ with like minded teens in their community. #staycatholic
