

SAINT PATRICK SAINT MARGARET MARY

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

Then your light shall break forth like the dawn,
and your wound shall quickly be healed.
(Is 58:8)

Psalm:

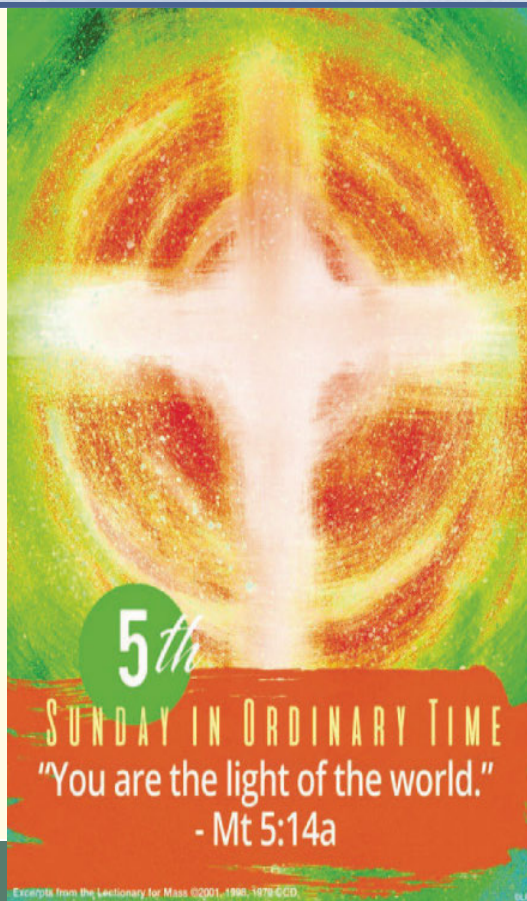

The just man is a light in darkness to the upright.
(Ps 112)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

When I came to you, brothers and sisters,
proclaiming the mystery of God,
I did not come with sublimity of words or of wisdom.
For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
(1 Cor 2:1-2)

Gospel:

"You are the light of the world.
A city set on a mountain cannot be hidden.
Nor do they light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket." (Mt 5:14-15)

YOU ARE Welcome Here

Sins of Omission

Do you ever mentally skip over the statement: "for what I have failed to do" in the Confiteor/ Penitential Act at the beginning of every mass? We figure that reconciliation is all about those time we did something wrong like lying, cheating, losing our temper etc. What are missing are the things we ignored and silently choose not to do. These are called sins of omission.

We may think that "no foul is fair play" as they say on the sports field. The whole focus it seems on reconciliation is to create a laundry list of offenses against the commandments. It is no wonder that those omission sins fall through the crack. We simply are not looking for them.

We can sit there doing nothing to right a wrong, help out, correct a mistake or stop injustice. What is most challenging about sins of omission is that we can ignore doing the right thing and never get caught. It is up to our conscience to blow the whistle on us. James 4:17 makes it clear: "Anyone, then, that knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins." It is time to ask ourselves this question. "Should I have done something? Did I just sit on my hands when I should have worked for good?"

Think about those times when you have been "too busy" to help a neighbor, a relative, or a friend. What about watching a accident and driving on because you do not want to get involved? Think of the times we are silent when someone gossips, demeans or lies about another.

Maybe we should reread the parable of the Good Samaritan and reflect on it. We can't go back and fix the times we failed to do something, but we can turn on our radar and be aware of those times when we must respond and do the loving thing. This a tough challenge for all of us. Speaking up when an injustice occurs, defending the moral choice etc.

Jesus tells us that this is the cost of discipleship. This week, think about how you "what I have failed to do", help you fine tune you're to do list?

Deacon Mike

"Because all creatures are connected, each must be cherished with love and respect, for all of us as living creatures are dependent on one another."
-Pope Francis (Laudato Si, Paragraph 42)

Eating "lower on the food chain" is a powerful way to answer Pope Francis' call to Care for Creation, and something we can all do every day.

Even a great lenten challenge!

Why? It can reduce the amount of water, land, energy, chemicals, transportation, refrigeration, and packaging we use.

It can also lower grocery bills, improve personal health, and keep us in solidarity with people with less means.

How to do it? Buy ingredients that are in season, organic, locally grown, with simple or no packaging, and contain no meat and little dairy - like black bean soup, blueberry whole wheat muffins, tortilla soup, or roasted vegetable salad.
