SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

"This man, delivered up by the set plan and foreknowledge of God, you killed, using lawless men to crucify him. But God raised him up, releasing him from the throes of death, because it was impossible for him to be held by it." (Acts 2:23-24)

Psalm:

Lord, you will show us the path of life. (Ps 16)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Conduct yourselves with reverence during the time of your sojourning, realizing that you were ransomed from your futile conduct, handed on by your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ as of a spotless unblemished lamb. (1 Pt 1:17-19)

Gospel:

And it happened that, while he was with them at table, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them. With that their eyes were opened and they recognized him, but he vanished from their sight. (Lk 24:30-31)

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" - Lk 24:33-34

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Is it Gods plan or ours?

We have our own plans and desires that we would like to achieve in our lifetime. A few of which might be one of the following: To have a stable and fulfilling job and to become successful in our chosen field; To travel the world and explore it; To own a car and fancy electronics; To be buff and to have a toned physique; To become famous and have many friends; To become the most followed person on social media; To live a glamorous and luxurious life; To become a powerful and influential personality just to name a few.

When I was young, I wanted to be successful. Specifically, I wanted to be rich and successful. In my mind I thought that being successful and rich will bring me happiness and peace. So, did I make a lot of money? Am I so rich now, that I could buy a country of my own and run for President and win eventually? Do I own so much that I lost count of it? Nope, none of the above happened (fortunately).

God realigns and changes our hearts so that His plan and purpose in our lives will be fulfilled. He will remind us that the things we want and crave for are just temporary things and what He is offering is eternal life which is even better.

In our "waiting" God is always working. He is changing things: our life, our present circumstance, and most especially our heart. Sometimes it's not easy to accept. He is changing these for the better. Everything that God wants for you will happen. Maybe not the way you wanted. You just have to trust in Him, be patient, and always wait for God's perfect timing.

Deacon Mike

Next weeks second collection will be for Catholic Home Missions. Your support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal provides home mission dioceses with the resources to welcome and minister to their growing multicultural communities. Your support of this appeal makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Please prayerfully consider how you can support the Catholic Home Missions Appeal this year.
