

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

SUNDAY'S READINGS

First Reading:

So the Twelve called together the community of the disciples and said, "It is not right for us to neglect the word of God to serve at table. Brothers, select from among you seven reputable men, filled with the Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint to this task, whereas we shall devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." (Acts 6:2-4)

Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you. (Ps 33) Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

You are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of his own, so that you may announce the praises" of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. (1 Pt 2:9)

Gospel:

Jesus said to him, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, then you will also know my Father." (Jn 14:6-7)

5TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?" - Jn 14:2

God cares for You

Sometimes it seems that no one cares about you. Do you sometimes feel like that? Does it seem that no one is listening and that people, who should be concerned, hurt you more, rather than listen and tend to your needs?

Sometimes these are just our perceptions but often, they are a reflection of the hard-heartedness and self-absorption of those around us. Yes, even of Christians! But there is One who truly cares – God cares for you.

“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine” (Isaiah 43:1). We are not just numbers in God’s big database, but he knows our names and not only our names, but everything about us. We often find it hard to understand how God can know us by our names when people around us don’t. That’s just the problem. We tend to feel that because people don’t care, God also does not care. But God does care even more than we can imagine.

There is no problem in your life that is too big or too small for God to know about and to care about. He has compassion for us. He loves, cares, is concerned and is merciful on all who are in need.

We need to cast our cares on Him. So often we try to bear them ourselves and often we complain about the fact that no one else cares to lift a finger to help us. Turn to Jesus, He is waiting for us to unload it all on Him. Yes, the problems may not go away, but knowing that He is sharing the load makes it so much lighter and easier to bear.

Deacon Mike
