Happy Mother's Day!

A prayer for all Mothers this day!

God, on a day like today, we are thankful for the great gift you have given us in motherhood. We know that you have given us motherhood as something good; and yet things are not always the way you designed them to be. And so we are joyous and thankful; and yet at the same time we embrace those who mourn.

God, we give you thanks for mothers and grandmothers who raised us well. We give you thanks for moms who were with us during hard times, for moms who prayed for us when we were struggling, and for moms who served us in ways that often went unnoticed.

For those who had the privilege of being a mom and a grandma, we thank you for that gift. We thank you for the joy of being able to welcome a newborn baby into the world – of seeing their first steps, and hearing their first words. We thank you for the children you have put into this world, and the privilege it is to raise them to follow you.

We also recognize those among us who experience pain and a sense of loss today. We think of those mothers or grandmothers whose circumstances may be difficult or trying. We think specifically of those who have lost mothers, for whom today may feel like an anniversary of their grief.

We think of those who long to be mothers, but mourn the absence of new life within them; those who've conceived, but suffered loss through miscarriage or abortion; those who have given birth, but endured the tragedy of having to bury their own child.

With them we cry! But you, O God, have answered our cry. You have shown concern for our cries by sending your very Son. He himself bore our sorrows and is deeply understands our grief. Because of his resurrection, death no longer has any sting. And so, when we grieve, we now grieve as those with hope. We await a new heavens and a new earth in which all pain and suffering will be pass away. Amen

Deacon Mike
