SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there." (2 Kgs 4:9-10)

Psalm:

For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.
(Ps 89)

Second Reading:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life.
(Rom 6:3-4)

Gospel:

"Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me." (Mt 10:40)

13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"Whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me." - Mt 10:37-38

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass (©2011, 1989 CCC, OLP)

There is no Deacon's Corner this weekend. It's his Birthday and he has taken off to see some of our beautiful country! I'm sure they are "Happy Campers!"

Independence Day

Today throughout the United States, we celebrate our freedom. Our rights are protected and opportunities abound. We recognize that freedom has a cost, one we celebrate and honor on days such as this. It's good to honor those who fight for our country, who may well pay the ultimate price for the liberties we're afforded. As faithful Catholics, we recognize that there is more to freedom than simply being at liberty to make our lives what we want them to be. St. John Paul II reminds us: "Freedom is not just doing what we can, it is doing what we ought." We become freer within ourselves and within our relationships when we choose what is right and good. When we choose sin, we become trapped in egoism - less free, not more. This Independence Day, let's continue to pursue virtue and good character and encourage others to do this same.

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Our relationship with Christ is the ultimate starting point. The wellspring. Every good quality in our character, every kind action of our lives, every devout practice of our day must flow from this place where we encounter him in our hearts.

PLEASE NOTE THAT THE SMM/SP OFFICES WILL BE CLOSED ON MONDAY, JULY 3RD & TUESDAY, JULY 4TH! WE WILL RETURN TO NORMAL BUSINESS HOURS ON WEDNESDAY!

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY!!

Give Until It Hurts

One of the characteristics of Everyday Stewardship is to be committed — to persevere daily in a way of life acknowledging that everything belongs to God.

I know, I know. Easier said than done.

Just ask Zebedee. It's quite an image we get from the Gospel, after all. "So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him."

There was Zebedee, about his business, mending nets with his two sons, who were undoubtedly his best workers — they had to have been more dedicated than the hired men, who worked for wages rather than for family. And in an instant off they go, following this strange man.

I don't know about you, but if my kids left me on a hot summer day to finish the lawn by myself, I wouldn't be too happy.

But Zebedee must have been someone quite special. Perhaps he realized that his sons didn't belong to him — not really. They belonged to God, and from the beginning of time, it had been appointed that they would be among the first disciples of Christ. He passed, he called, they followed, and Zebedee obliged. He simply went back to mending his nets, I imagine.

Zebedee already understood what St. Teresa of Calcutta would say millennia later: "Give until it hurts."

"You're wasting my time." "I've done so much for her; she owes me this." How often do we think things, and even people and relationships, belong to us? The truth is none of them do. We must be ready, as Zebedee was, to surrender them to God when He comes walking past.

You're Invited

Please join us for the public novena in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel.

This year, Fr. Bob Showers, OFM

Conv., pastor of St. Joseph's and St. Benedict's in Terre Haute will preach the novena. He will be with us every night except July 14, when Fr. Todd Riebe will take his place. It will be a wonderful chance to enrich your spiritual life with inspiring and motivating reflections. The Novena will be held at the Carmelite Monastery, 59 Allendale, from July 8th to the 16th, the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available from 6pm-7pm. The actual novena service begins each evening at 7pm, with the recitation of the rosary and the novena prayer, followed by Holy Mass. Monday, July 10th is the special night for the parishes of St. Patrick & St. Margaret Mary at the monastery! Please know that you are welcome and encouraged to come every night!
