

SAINT PATRICK SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

The rain and snow come down and do not return there till they have watered the earth, making it fertile and fruitful.
(Is 55:10)

Psalm:

The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest. (Ps 65)

Second Reading:

I consider that the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us. For creation awaits with eager expectation the revelation of the children of God.
(Rom 8:18-19)

Gospel:

And he spoke to them at length in parables, saying:
"A sower went out to sow. (Mt 13:3)

15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The seed sown on rich soil is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred or sixty or thirtyfold." - Mt 13:23

Caring as I Serve

Life has a way of getting complicated fast. Before I even open my eyes in the morning, my mind is racing. What do I have to get done today? Who am I meeting? What relationships in my family are stressing me out? How much money is left in my account and when is payday? Do I have enough to make it? AM I enough? There are days when life is so complicated and overwhelming that my anxiety level is high. Lately, it seems it's just about every day.

Jesus was all about simplifying life. He spelled it out for us when he responded to the religious scholar that tried to catch him in a trap. Only two things are important in this life: Love God, Love your neighbor as yourself.

That's it. Not how much my net worth is. Not how much I give to charity. Not how many friends I have. Not how popular I am. Just two things, it can't get any simpler than that. However, loving others we get along with is easy. Loving difficult people is hard.

Jesus calls us to: Just love the next person God puts in front of you. Don't judge them, just be a blessing to them and move on. Be a tender, loving and caring person in that moment. Jesus extends His grace and mercy to love me right where I am. As Christians we are called to do the same. Because it's not about me, it's about them and who they are, daughters and sons of our Creator.

As we serve each other, may we serve with the tender loving care of our Savior, encouraging each other on our spiritual journey.

Deacon Mike

Dear Friends,

I sincerely thank Father Syberg and every one of you for giving me a wonderful opportunity to share about our mission work in India.

I thank you on behalf of the children and the elderly that we serve. I express our deep gratitude for sharing your blessings with our needy in India. I had a wonderful visit. All of you can truly take pride in the way you share in the compassionate mission of this great organization. Your prayers and support will mean a lot and we are ever grateful to you. Your kindness will always be remembered. May God bless you all! Kindly continue to pray for us.

With Prayers and Much Gratitude,

Lighter Side:

Muldoon lived alone in the Irish countryside with only a pet dog for company. One day the dog died, and Muldoon went to the parish priest and asked, "Father, me dog is dead. Could ya' be saying' a mass for the poor creature?"

Father Patrick replied, "I'm afraid not, we cannot have services for an animal in the church. But there are some Baptists down the lane, and there's no tellin' what they believe. Maybe they'll do something for the creature."

Muldoon said, "I'll go right away Father. Do ya' think $5,000 is enough to donate to them for the service?" Father Patrick exclaimed, "Sweet Mary, Mother of Jesus! Why did ya' not tell me the dog was Catholic?"

Focus on the Good

When I was a child, my mother had a set of sculptures resembling three human heads. One head had hands over the ears, one had hands over the eyes, and one had hands over the mouth. Of course, they depicted the phrase, "Hear no evil; see no evil; speak no evil." I have seen these images repeated many times since then, usually as the monkey heads from a Japanese proverb, which would have probably seemed a little less creepy to me when I was a small child. Apparently, there is no consensus about the full meaning or certain origin of these three images nor the phrase. At the very least, it causes us to reflect on the need to avoid evil and look for the good in things.

As I have lived my life, I have come to believe there are more people who live their lives in a contrary manner to these images. It is not that they seek evil, but it is as if they "see no good, hear no good, and speak no good." Gossiping is the way they pass the time, and they always seem to find the negative in people and situations. Being a good steward certainly means that we do not seek evil, but more than that, it means that we see the abundance of good things all around us. These gifts of God are big and little, profound and ordinary. By seeing the world in this way, we begin to change our personalities and our overall disposition. We always need to follow a new proverb: see all the good, hear all the good, and speak about the good. Amen.
