

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Because you have asked for this—not for a long life for yourself, nor for riches, nor for the life of your enemies, but for understanding so that you may know what is right—I do as you requested." (1 Kgs 3:11-12)

Psalms:

Lord, I love your commands. (Ps 119)

Second Reading:

For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. (Rom 8:29)

Gospel:

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." (Mt 13:44)

17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure buried in a field, which a person finds and hides again, and out of joy goes and sells all that he has and buys that field." - Mt 13:44

Midst of Uncertainty

Most of us would probably agree that when there is a sense of stability and security in our lives, we have more peace of mind. The structure of our days, the stability of our relationships and our health, and the security of our finances all go a long way toward a calm heart and mind.

Uncertainty, however, does quite the opposite, creating worry and anxiety. Uncertainty can overwhelm even the calmest Christian! When anything is uncertain in our lives, we feel unsettled. Not to mention the total lack of control we feel when the floor drops out on our perfect plans. But we can find freedom when we choose to trust God even in the midst of uncertainty...

I don't want to tell you for a second how difficult uncertain times are and how hard it is not to be afraid in the midst of uncertainty. What does everyone say when they are waiting for news that could turn out bad. "I just want to know, the worst part is the waiting." Sometimes the hardest thing to do is to wait until that which is uncertain becomes certain... It is then that we run the risk of trying to be God in our own lives, manipulating a situation to force a certain outcome.

For example, when Moses went up to the top of the mountain to talk to God and to receive the Ten Commandments, the Israelites grew impatient below and pressured Aaron to make a god. So Aaron collected all the gold jewelry and gold pieces that they had, melted it down and made a golden calf. They essentially created a "god for their uncertainty".

We have to be careful not to do the same thing... In so doing, we could miss out on the blessing of God's presence while we wait. When we are feeling afraid due to uncertainty, we must put our trust in God; reminding ourselves over and over again that God is with us always. Trusting God when the present and future is uncertain will come naturally when our hearts are set on the promise of hope, peace, and the presence of God in our lives.

St. Patrick Bible Study

Have you ever wanted to unpack the mysteries of the book of Revelations? Revelation: The Kingdom Yet to Come, presented by Jeff Cavins, is an eleven week bible study that will take an intriguing look at one of the most talked-about and possibly the most misunderstood book in scripture. Explore how the kingdom established by Christ in his church is intimately connected with the kingdom of heaven, especially through the celebration of Mass. Learn what all the mysterious figures and images of Revelation represent, as well as what will happen during the Second Coming of Christ, what has already happened, and what is happening now in salvation history. Participants of Revelation will meet every week to view an engaging video presentation followed by a time of lively group discussion and fellowship.

Revelation will be presented in 2 parts. Part 1 September – October: Part 2 January –March. Once again we will have weekly sessions on Sunday and Wednesday: Sundays from Sept. 10-Oct. 22/Jan. 21-Mar. 3 from 10:30am-12:15pm: Wednesdays Sept. 12-Oct. 25/Jan. 24-Mar. 6 from 6:45pm-8:30pm. Please note: If you can attend only one part of this fascinating study, you will be able to access the study online. For more information please contact : Geri March at 812-240-7456 or Victorian1411@gmail.com

Registration closes August 20, 2023.

The Monthly Good Grief Breakfasts have been scheduled! Please put these dates on your calendar! They will be held at Denny's Restaurant (223 South 3rd Street) after the 9:00am Mass. Please bring a friend.
