

SAINT PATRICK

SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Then the LORD said to him,
"Go outside and stand on the mountain before the LORD; the LORD will be passing by." (1 Kgs 19:11)

Psalms:

Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us
your salvation. (Ps 85)

Second Reading:

My conscience joins with the Holy Spirit in bearing me witness that I have great sorrow
and constant anguish in my heart.
For I could wish that I myself were accursed and cut off from Christ for the sake of my own people, (Rom 9:1-3)

Gospel:

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you,
command me to come to you on the water."
He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus.
(Mt 14:28-29)

19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." He said, "Come." Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water toward Jesus. - Mt 14:28-29

Overcoming Obstacles

Obstacles aren't fun to deal with. They slow up our plans. They keep us from moving forward in our dreams and desires that are in our hearts. They block us from seeing the untapped potential for our future. Challenges in life are rarely pleasant. They are trying and tiring because God didn't create us to be in conflict, but to be at peace.

Our obstacles don't look like epic quests but more like a washing machine that breaks or a child with extra health needs or that one fight you keep circling around and around to in your marriage. The final part of a good story is resolution. This doesn't mean "And they lived happily ever after." While the Hallmark channel may try to convince us otherwise, we know the world is full of stories that don't wrap up nicely with a bow on top.

Sometimes the resolution isn't that the problem is solved, but the main character is changed because of the conflict and that is you and me. Here are a few suggestions to overcome obstacles;

We may not understand why an obstacle is there. If we spend too much time trying to understand the 'why', we may lose focus on how to walk through the challenges we face.

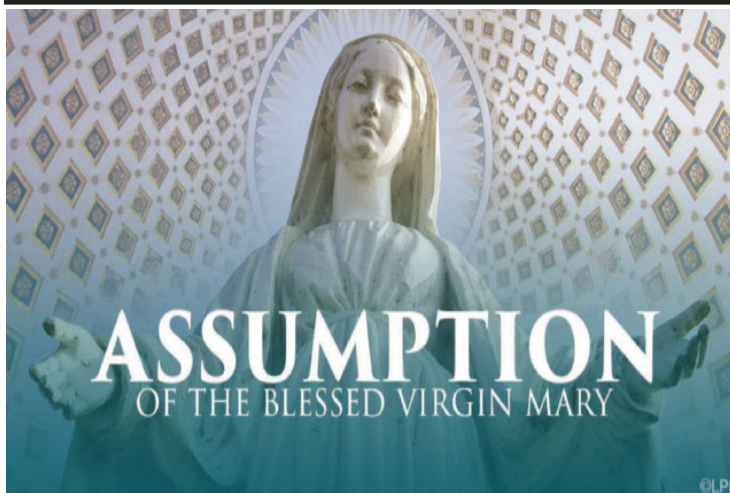

Try to control our emotions, stay calm and breathe before making rational decisions when learning how to overcome obstacles.

We can seek wise counsel about our situation and lift the burden of carrying it alone. Learning how to overcome obstacles alone is much harder than sharing the problem with people we love and trust.

We can pray and give our situation to the Lord. Our obstacle may not move or change but our courage and strength will grow with Jesus at our side. Trouble, challenges and conflict are all part of life. But you can have peace and overcome obstacles with Jesus.

Everyday Stewardship

I remember when all three of my children were learning to swim. In the beginning, it seemed like no matter how much assurance I gave them, they were certain they would drown. Even after watching me float in the water, they were pretty sure their bodies were created to sink. In time, they grew more comfortable in the water. Eventually, they could even swim the length of the pool. But this did not happen overnight. They had to grow in their faith that swimming was possible, not just for others, but for them as well.

Too many of us who are Christians believe that holiness is for someone else. We believe that the stories of the saints are about super humans who had something in greater supply than us. When our faith is weak, we assume that we can never have the faith of these holy men and women.

On the contrary, faith and holiness are not things only possible for a few. But we must practice our faith to grow in our faith. We must strive for holiness if we are to become holy.

Like a child fears the water before learning to swim, we often fear the path that leads to greater faith or holiness. We are not convinced that God can work in our lives to create a saint. Yet except for Mary, the Immaculate Conception, every saint was a sinner. God called every saint to exit the boat and walk toward Jesus on the water. In time, with practice and trust in God, they found they did not sink either.
