SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

All who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer
(Is 56:6-7)

Psalm:

O God, let all the nations praise you!
(Ps 67)

Second Reading:

For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.
(Rom 11:32)

Gospel:

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish."
(Mt 15:28)

20TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour. - Mt 15:28

Binds Us Together

Do you have a special bond with Jesus? I know personally I have a special bond with a few family members and friends. How about you? What makes that bond special? I could put several reasons why here, but what about Jesus? What binds us together with Jesus?

When Jesus proclaimed the good news of God's kingdom he also demonstrated the power of His word by signs and wonders. Jesus healed people who suffered physical, emotional, and mental illnesses. He freed people from spiritual bondage to sin and evil powers. Jesus gave his disciples the same authority he had to heal and set people free from spiritual bondage.

Jesus chose ordinary people to do extraordinary work with love. He commissioned His disciples to carry on the works which He did. And that was to speak God's word and to bring His word to the weary and the oppressed. Jesus chose ordinary people like you and me, who do ordinary things in our ordinary lives.

Jesus has a special bond with ordinary people who could take an assignment and do it with great love. He chose these men, not for what they were, but for what they would be capable of becoming under his direction and grace. When the Lord calls us to serve, we must not think we have nothing or very little to offer.

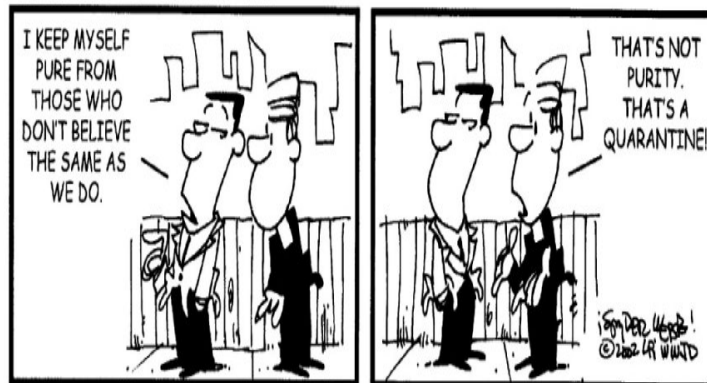

The Lord takes what ordinary people, like us, can offer and uses it for greatness in His kingdom. Do you have a special bond with Jesus and believe that He wants you to spread the Good News and use you as His witness?

As Christians, Jesus chose you and me to be His disciples. Take and use that special bond you have with Jesus, however meager it may seem to you, a joy of companionship that can brighten even the darkest day.

Deacon Mike

The Challenge of Stewardship

Every day we are called by Christ to respond in some way. The more practice we have at giving of ourselves freely and living in His presence, the easier it is to discern that call. Once we hear the call, the choice is ours: will we respond with yes or no? We could say that we are not required to say yes because God has given us free will. However, our response speaks much to where we are in our maturity of faith. When we were children, the word "no" used to be one of our favorites. If we continue to say that as we get older, well, that says something about where we are in our walk with the Lord. If we truly are disciples of Jesus Christ and are serious about growing in our faith, we will say "yes." We are not required to say yes, but we say yes because that is who we have become.

This is the challenge of a stewardship way of life. Have we matured enough to say yes when God calls, regardless of how much our answer may cost us? What matters more to us: what it will cost us or our relationship with Jesus? Some days we will easily be able to say yes. The grace and love he gives us will be plenty to see us through whatever situation in which we find ourselves. However, we are imperfect beings and there will be days when we are more into ourselves than him. It is on those days that we find ourselves at a true crossroads of a challenge. The choice is always ours. Hopefully, our faith will be strong enough. His call is never for his own sake. He calls us because the world he created and the Church he instituted need us. They wait just as he does for our response.

– Tracy Earl Welliver

Teens invited to volunteer with Sisters of Providence

Teenagers! Come share your time and talents with the Sisters of Providence of Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, Indiana. Join us Saturday, August 26, from 9 a.m.-2 p.m., to assist the sisters and health care residents with various activities. Register at TeenVolunteer.SistersofProvidence.org or contact Sister Joni Luna at 361-500-9505 or jluna@spsmw.org to learn more.

It's that time again. August is St. Pat's turn to collect cans of soup for the 12 Points Brown Bag Project. This Ministry serves the needy of Garfield Towers and Warren Village. We ask that you bring cans of soup to Mass and turn them in to a greeter. Let us all be Souper Hero's and make this a successful Soup Drive. Help us feed God's people!
