5 Minutes

Many Catholics long to spend daily time with Jesus, praying and reflecting on Scripture. However, we are often distracted by a busy schedule. Frustrations mount as busyness seems to crowd out an opening in our schedule.

Just give God 5 minutes in His presence. Five minutes with God is worth more than all of the rest of the day. It's not the thing on which we spend the most time that molds us, but the thing that exerts the greatest power. Now this may sound like an overstatement, yet powerful results can come from even a short time of prayer, because God is powerful!

Sometimes our days are filled with busy demands, but no matter where we are, any time we take to build our own spiritual altar it opens the door to His transforming power. If you having trouble scheduling time with God, just start with 5 minutes and see where it leads. God longs to hear from us!
