

SAINT PATRICK SAINT MARGARET MARY

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

But if he turns from the wickedness he has committed,
he does what is right and just,
he shall preserve his life. (Ez 18:27)

Psalm:

Remember your mercies, O Lord. (Ps 25)

Second Reading:

Have in you the same attitude
that is also in Christ Jesus. (Phil 2:5)

Gospel:

Jesus said to them, "Amen, I say to you,
tax collectors and prostitutes
are entering the kingdom of God before you." (Mt 21:31)

We have nothing to fear

Most people would say they have been afraid more times than they can count. Occasional fears have grown into continual anxiety. Although no one wants to be afraid, common theories hold that fear is a part of life.

Franklin Roosevelt, President during much of the Great Depression and most of World War II, rallied Americans at the peak of the Depression when he famously said, "The only thing we have to fear is fear itself." Christ Jesus, centuries earlier, went much further, showing women and men that they did not have to bow down to fear in any form, for any reason.

Jesus told those who seemed to be in the grip of terror—for instance, a dad whose only child was dying, a man paralyzed for years, and his own disciples on a ship in a violent storm, or a multitude of food-insecure poor people. Those diseases and issues were completely relieved, replaced by health, peace, security, charity. Was Jesus just good at calming people, making them see that things really weren't as bad as they thought? Or was there something else at work?

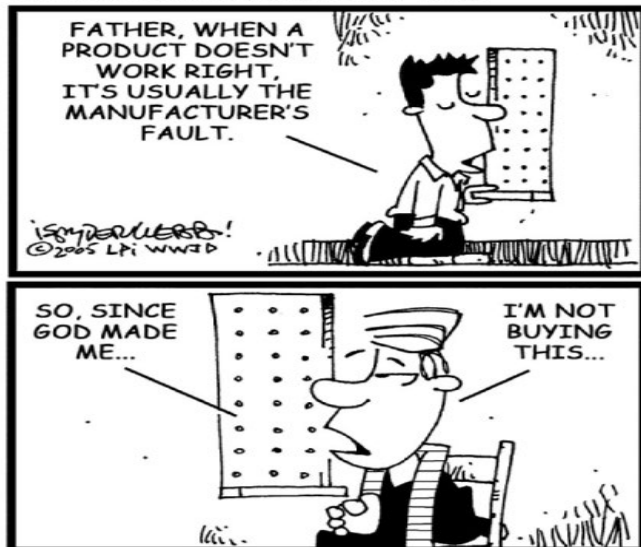

Jesus said it was his Father, who was at work and He was just following His example. He knew God's children were made in the image and likeness of God. Also we were created to reflect His perfect love.

All of us face challenges in life, at times even apparently fearsome ones, but Jesus promised that He would always be with us. It is only if our lives are built upon His strength that we will be able to endure the harshness of life in a fallen world.

Deacon Mike

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

R

The St. Margaret Mary Retirees will attend the 11:00am Mass on Thursday, October 19th then head to lunch at Putman Inn Buffet in Greencastle, In. Please contact Jane Long 812-239-4691 or Louise Meneghini 812-239-1227 if you plan to attend. All are welcome!

Everyday Stewardship

Remember a time when jealousy or envy reared its ugly head and you wished you had something that someone else owned? Maybe it was a house, a car, a bank account, or even that luscious green lawn. All humans have had that feeling before and some of us more often than others. After the emotion hit you, hopefully you considered all the good gifts you did have in your life and gave thanks for them. Let's pray that you are still not hanging onto those feelings. Unfortunately, we do live in a world that seems to fuel those desires and push us toward wanting more and more.

But let's level the field here. Did you ever hear of someone who died and was able to take any of those things into the afterlife? The reality is that nothing we have in this life truly belongs to us. We come into this world with nothing and as time goes by more gifts are entrusted to us but we never truly own them. So whom do they belong to anyway?

Of course, you know the answer. All that we have has been entrusted to us by God; to be cherished, cultivated, and then given back to him for his glory. God doesn't need any of these things, and we only need them short-term. All that we need long-term is God. If he is all we need in the end, I bet our lives would be more fruitful and happier if we focused on that now instead of later.
