

God Lives

Have you noticed in scriptures that men always going up the mountain to commune with the Lord? Yet in scriptures we hardly ever hear of women going up the mountain to meet the Lord. The reason is, because the women were too busy keeping life going. They couldn't abandon the babies, meals, homes, fires, gardens and a thousand responsibilities to make the climb up the mountains.

Many modern day women say, they never feel "free" enough from their responsibilities. It's never quiet enough; or feel holy enough or a holy enough place to have the type of conversation they want with God. That is why God comes to the women where ever they are! In the scriptures, God comes to women where they are doing their ordinary everyday work. He meets them at the wells where they draw water for their families. He comes to them as they sit beside sickbeds, as they give birth, care for the elderly. Even at the empty tomb, Mary was the first witness of Christ's resurrection, she was there doing the womanly chore of properly taking care of Christ's body.

In these situations, women of scriptures have found themselves face to face with the divinity! So if you are like some women, and bemoan the fact that you don't have the time to spend in the mountains with God, remember God comes to you. For all of us, God knows the burdens we carry. If we open our eyes and hearts we will see Him. Even in most ordinary places and in the most ordinary things. He lives!

Happy Easter Season!
